From the East

Bretheren,

After a busy summer we are getting ready for a busy Fall. We look forward to seeing you for our upcoming meetings, Degrees, and events.

The first Event is our Table Lodge on the 3rd of September. All Masons are welcome. We will have dinner at 6pm.

We had our GMOV while we were dark this summer in August. Our Officers did a fantastic job. Our Ritual was at the top of its game and I could not have ask for it to go any better.

Thank you Brothers for making this a fantastic year for me so far.

From the West

Brethren,

The secret of Masonry, like the secret of life, can be known only by those who seek it, serve it, live it. It cannot be uttered; it can only be felt and acted. It is, in fact, an open secret, and each man knows it according to his quest and capacity. Like all things worth knowing, no one can know it for another and no man can know it alone.

William Howard Taft

From the Treasurer

Brethren,

Would just like to report that we are doing fine with our funds thanks to prompt dues payments to the secretary and other donations. Books are reconciled to the penny, and I can prove it.

Treasurer

DO WE MEET HIM ON THE LEVEL?

Unknown Author

To meet upon the level
Is an easy thing to say,
But when it comes to practice,
Do we do it every day?
Do we meet him on the level,
If the Brother chance to be
Just a little out at elbow
Or baggy at the knee?

When we meet him in the workshop,
Do we greet him with the grip
That we do the noted statesman
On a European trip?
Do we meet him on the level
And give him just the chance
That we do the dashing fellow
With the creases in his pants?

If fortune does not smile on him
In sunshine and repose,
Do we meet him on the level
In his second-handed clothes?
Do we invite him to our church,
And seat him in our pew,
And warm our hearts by clasping hands
As Brothers ought to do?

Yes, we meet him on the level,
On the broad Masonic plan,
Whenever we know him to be
A Mason and a man.
We'll meet him on the level,
And part upon the square,
And then perhaps he'll vouch for us
When we meet him over there.

From the South

Brethren,

Freemasonry is founded on the immutable laws of Truth and Justice and its grand object is to promote the happiness of the human race
George Washington

Junior Warden
